TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Every person applying for admission into the Seminary must produce satisfactory written testimonials, that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some regular church; and that he has passed through a regular course of collegiate study; or, wanting this, he must submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature usually taught in such a course.

Those who are not graduates of any college, must, prior to matriculation, produce a certificate from their Presbytery, or the ecclesiastical body under whose care they are as candidates for the gospel ministry, expressing its approval of their entrance upon theological study, without further literary preparation.

When a student has been received under the care of a Presbytery, and has passed with approbation his examination on the studies usually pursued in College, a certificate from the Presbytery declaring this fact is received as sufficient to answer every requisition in regard to testimonials.

When a student who has been connected with any other theological seminary seeks admission into this, he must produce testimonials of his good standing, and regular dismission, before he can be received.

A knowledge of Hebrew is not essential to students entering the Junior Class, inasmuch as the rudiments of this language form part of the regular course of instruction given in the first year. But a previous acquaintance with at least the written character would be of great service to beginners. Provision is made for advanced instruction for those who have already mastered the elements of the language.

COURSE OF STUDY.

SECOND YEAR.

Pastoral Care: Ordinances of Worship. Homiletics: Analysis of texts; Homiletical Criticism; Elocution.

FOURTH YEAR.

The regular course is completed in three years; but students may with great advantage continue to prosecute their studies in the Seminary for a longer period. It is not thought best to prescribe a fixed course of study for graduates. Each is at liberty to devote himself to those branches of theological learning for which he has the greatest aptitude, or which he judges to be most necessary or profitable to himself. Accordingly graduate students may at their discretion attend the lectures and recitations of the regular classes for the review of their previous studies; or they may individually conduct original investigation under the direction and advice of the professors and with the aid of the library.

The Junior Class has five weekly exercises in Hebrew; two in Introduction to the Old Testament and Archaeology; one in Introduction to the New Testament; two in the Exegesis of Paul's Epistles; two in Old Testament History; two in Theism; one in Homiletics; and one in Elocution.

THE SEVERAL DEPARTMENTS OF INSTRUCTION.

In order to convey a clearer idea of what is actually taught in the Seminary, the following more explicit statements are made respecting the instruction given.

INTRODUCTION TO THE SCRIPTURES.

General Introduction to the Old and the New Testament embraces the subjects of the Canon, the Original Languages of Scripture, Ancient Manuscripts and Versions, Sacred Criticism, and the History and Principles of Scriptural Interpretation.

Special Introduction embraces an account of each book severally, its authorship, integrity, design, and structure, together with a general statement of its contents, and a more particular examination of the most interesting and important questions relating to its criticism and interpretation. The course is intended to include at least a general survey of every book in the Bible.

HEBREW.

Hebrew is taught throughout the course. But the grammatical study of the language as such is confined mainly to the first year, in which a larger portion of time is devoted to it than to any other single branch. The Junior Class is trained not simply in translation and parsing, but in the derivation of words and the comparison of synonyms, and in converting English into Hebrew. A beginning is also made the first year in the application of the knowledge of the language to the work of exposition, which is carried out more fully in the subsequent years of the course.

THE OLD TESTAMENT.

A general and comprehensive survey is presented of the various books of the Old Testament, in their individual plan and contents, and in their relations to one another, and to the general scheme of which they form a part. The most important questions in criticism and exegesis that arise in each are considered, with a special reference to the gradual unfolding of revealed truth, the preparation for the coming of Christ, and the fuller disclosures of the New Testament. Particular attention is paid to the interpretation of typical facts and institutions, and to tracing the progressive scheme of prophecy. The Middle Class is also engaged in the more detailed study of the Psalms and the Senior Class in that of Isaiah.

THE NEW TESTAMENT.

In the study of the New Testament an acquaintance with ordinary Greek is assumed; but careful attention is paid to the peculiarities of the Hellenistic dialect, particularly as employed by the New Testament writers. The exegesis of the New Testament is begun with the Junior Class by the study of the Epistles of Paul. The life of Christ is exhibited in its several periods, with a careful analysis of the different Gospels, their mutual relations, their individual characteristics, and the harmony of their respective narratives. The Acts of the Apostles is studied both exegetically and topically, with prominent reference to the life and labors of the Apostle Paul, and the early planting of the Christian Church. Special introductions to the various Epistles are inserted in their proper chronological place.

BIBLICAL THEOLOGY.

Biblical Theology of the Old Testament is a regular study of the Senior year; Biblical Theology of the New Testament is an elective study for Senior and Graduate students. The text-books which are made the basis of instruction in these departments, are Oehler's Theology of the Old Testament and Weiss's Theology of the New Testament. Steps have been taken toward the establishment of a distinct professorship in this department, which it is hoped will be suitably filled by the Board of Directors at their next meeting.

SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY.

Systematic Theology is begun in the Middle year, and completed in the Senior year. The doctrines of Theology are presented didactically, historically, and polemically. The order of Topics pursued is: The nature, forms, and sources of Theology; the being of God, His nature and attributes; the Trinity; the Divinity of Christ; the Holy Spirit; the decrees of God; creation; providence; miracles; the origin, nature and primitive state of man; the covenant with Adam; the fall; sin; imputation; original sin; inability; the covenant of grace; the person of Christ; His offices; the nature, necessity, perfection, and extent of the atonement; His kingdom; His humiliation and exaltation; vocation; regeneration; faith; justification; sanctification; the law of God; the sacraments; eschatology.

BIBLICAL AND ECCLESIASTICAL HISTORY.

The Junior Class is instructed in Old Testament History, using for the present Blaikie's Manual of Bible History as a guide, while the Biblical narratives are themselves the main object of study. The course is supplemented by lectures.

The Middle Class begin the study of general Church History at the close of the Apostolic Age and continue it into the period of the Reformation. There will be a special course of twenty lectures on "The Origins of Catholicism," and a course of lectures on "The History of the Fourteenth Century."

The Seniors begin at the Reformation and pursue the study of general Church History down to the present time. The first half of the year is occupied by lectures on "The History of Dogma."

The instruction in general Church History for both classes combines lectures with the use of Fisher's "History of the Christian Church" as a text-book.

ECCLESIASTICAL, HOMILETICAL AND PASTORAL THEOLOGY.

The study of Homiletics begins in the Junior year. The method of instruction is by Lectures. The course includes: The proper idea and essential elements of a Sermon; the Classification of Sermons; the choice of Texts; Origination of Thought; Invention; Assimilation; the drawing of the Theme; Analysis of Texts and the different classes of Divisions; Practical exercise in the making of Divisions, with criticisms of Sermons delivered in the presence of a Professor.

The study of Ecclesiastical Theology is begun in the Middle year. Instruction is by Lectures. Subjects: The true idea of the Church; the Organization of the Church; the Head of the Church; the claim of Papal supremacy; the Officers of the Church, etc.

The course of Lectures on Homiletics is continued in the Middle year, including Lectures on Introductions; methods of treating the different heads of a discourse: Illustrations in preaching, together with practical exercises in preaching and criticisms by a Professor.

The Senior Class is instructed in Pastoral Theology by Lectures. The study of Ecclesiastical Theology is continued, including Lectures on the Apostolical Succession; Priesthood of the Ministry; Ordination; the Ruling Elder; Church Discipline, etc.

THE RELATIONS OF PHILOSOPHY AND SCIENCE TO THE CHRISTIAN RELIGION.

The work of this chair will, for the present, embrace the following subjects: Theological Encyclopedia; Theism in its historical, constructive, and critical aspects, including the anti-theistic theories, (on which subjects President Patton, of the College, gives instruction to the Junior Class); Biblical Ethics; and Christian Social Science. On these latter topics instruction is given to the Senior Class.

SPECIAL LECTURES.

The foundation created by L. P. Stone, Esq., provides for an annual course of lectures upon some topic kindred to theological studies.

The lecturer for the present year is the Rev. Samuel H. Kellogg, D.D., of Toronto, Ont., whose subject is "Modern Theories of the Origin and Development of Religion."

RHETORICAL EXERCISES IN SERMONIZING.

DR. DAVIS and MR. VANDYKE preside at the weekly speaking of the Junior and Middle Classes, each member of which is, in his turn, expected to deliver original discourses, memoriter.

The weekly preaching of the Senior Class is under the direction of DR. PAXTON, who also conducts exercises with the class in analysis of texts, and in writing and criticising sermons.

MR. HENRY W. SMITH, the instructor in Elocution, is in attendance throughout the session, and gives a thorough course of teaching in this department, meeting the students both singly and in classes, and combining a careful discussion of principles with abundant and varied vocal exercises.

Every student is required, prior to graduation, to exhibit to the Professor of Homiletical Instruction two lectures and four popular sermons, which shall be approved by him.

OPTIONAL STUDIES.

Hebrew is the only Oriental language which is taught in the regular course; but such students as desire it may be instructed in Palestinian Aramaic, Syriac, Arabic, or Assyrian.

Private classes may also be formed for classical reading, Biblical exegesis, or other subjects collateral to the course.

On application to the Professors of the College, students can have the privilege of attending lectures in that institution, provided these do not interfere with their regular course in the Seminary.

Instruction in French and German languages can be obtained from competent teachers at the student's expense.

HEBREW FELLOWSHIP.

The George S. Green fellowship, yielding $600 in quarterly payments, is offered to that member of the graduating class, who shall stand highest in a special examination to be held in April upon a specified portion of Hebrew, and who shall in addition prepare the best thesis on a specified subject, to be presented on or before the first day of April.

The holder of this fellowship will be expected to spend at least one year in Old Testament study, under the direction of the Faculty, either in Princeton or in some approved foreign university.

No student can receive the fellowship, who has not spent at least two years in this Seminary, nor unless he passes a satisfactory examination on all the studies of the regular course, nor unless his specified examination and thesis are decidedly meritorious.

The examination for this fellowship this year will be upon the Hebrew of the Senior year together with Isaiah, ch. i-xii; and the subject of the thesis is: The Messianic Teaching of the book of Isaiah.

The examination next year will be upon the Hebrew of the Senior year together with the Book of Zechariah; and the subject of the thesis is: The Unity of the Book of Zechariah.

NEW TESTAMENT FELLOWSHIP.

The Alumni fellowship fund now amounts to seven thousand dollars. The Archibald Robertson scholarship was founded by Mrs. Robertson of New York City by the gift of five thousand dollars with the view of encouraging high attainments in some branch of Theological learning. For the present it has been arranged that the income of both these funds shall be appropriated to that member of the graduating class who shall be selected by the Faculty for distinguished merit in the New Testament department as the Alumni Fellow and the Archibald Robertson Scholar, and who shall be expected to prosecute New Testament studies for an additional year under the direction of the Faculty either in Princeton or in some approved foreign university.

BIBLICAL PRIZES.

The prizes offered by Mr. Robert Carter are continued by his family: fifty dollars worth of books will be presented to that member of the Senior Class who shall prepare the best thesis on an assigned subject in Old Testament literature or exegesis. The second and third in merit will each be presented with ten dollars' worth of books.

The Rev. Horace C. Stanton, Ph.D., D.D., an alumnus of the Seminary, has founded the Benjamin Stanton prize in memory of his father, which is open to competition to members of the Middle Class: fifty dollars will be awarded for the best thesis on an assigned subject in Old Testament literature or exegesis.

Messrs. Charles Scribner's Sons offer fifty dollars' worth of their publications to that member of the Senior Class who shall prepare the best thesis on an assigned subject in New Testament literature or exegesis. The second and third in merit will each be presented with ten dollars' worth of their publications.

Mr. Alexander Maitland of New York has founded the Robert L. Maitland prize in memory of his father, which is open to competition to members of the Middle Class : one hundred dollars will be given for the best exegesis of a passage in the New Testament, and fifty dollars to the second in merit.

The first Carter prize was taken last year by Mr. S. M. Campbell; the first Scribner prize by Mr. S. C. Hodge; the Stanton prize by Mr. W. A. Shedd; the first Robert L. Maitland prize by Mr. T. C. Marshall, while the second was divided equally between Mr. H. T. Dobbins and Mr. J. M. Hamill.

The themes assigned for the present Seminary year are :

For the Carter prizes : The exegesis of Judges, ch. v.

For the Stanton prize : What was the " book of the law " found by Hilkiah in the temple, II Kings xxii. 8 ?

For the Scribner prizes : Paul's use of δικαιοσύνη, and his doctrine of Justification.

For the Maitland prizes : Exegesis of Romans, ch. ix.

All essays competing for prizes are to be handed in on or before April 1st.

The prizes and fellowships are accessible only to students who are taking the full regular course.

RELIGIOUS EXERCISES.

Daily prayers which every student is expected to attend, are conducted in the morning by members of the Senior Class, and in the evening by the Professors.

On Sabbath mornings the Professors preach in rotation in the Seminary Chapel. In the afternoon a Conference is held in the Oratory, at which the Professors conduct the discourse on a subject previously announced, and the students conduct the devotional exercises.

Missionary meetings are held every Sabbath evening among the students. The concert of prayer on the first Monday of each month is under the direction of the Professors.

Various other meetings for devotion or mutual exhortation are maintained either by the students as a body, or by each class separately, or by the graduates of the several colleges, etc.

Abundant opportunities for active usefulness and observation of pastoral life are afforded in Princeton and its vicinity. A large number of the students regularly engage in the conduct of religious meetings, in Sabbath School instruction, and in other kinds of Christian work.

LIBRARY.

The Library, which is in the commodious and comfortable building erected for it by the late James Lenox, LL.D. of New York, now contains about 53,100 bound volumes, chiefly theological, including, in addition to many rare and costly works, the large and unique collection of pamphlets presented by the Rev. Dr. Sprague, the libraries of Drs. Ashbel Green, John M. Krebs, John Breckinridge, etc.; the valuable Library of Dr. Addison Alexander, the gift of Messrs. R. L. and A. Stuart; a remarkably full collection of works on the Baptist controversy, embracing over 2000 volumes and 3000 pamphlets, gathered and presented by the late Mr. Samuel Agnew, of Philadelphia; and also a collection of 2000 volumes of Puritan Theology, presented by friends of the Seminary. The Library has, from the generosity of Messrs. R. L. and A. Stuart, a fund of ten thousand dollars, and from the estate of the late John C. Green, Esq., an additional fund of twenty-five thousand dollars, whose annual proceeds are devoted to its maintenance and increase. It is open one hour Monday and three hours every other week day for reading and consultation, and for drawing books. Certain text-books may be kept out during the entire term.

Students are also entitled to the free use of the Library of the College.

The reading-room is well supplied with the leading newspapers and periodicals. It is open to all the students.

STUART HALL.

This admirable structure affords the most ample and complete accommodations in the way of lecture-rooms, and apartments devoted to other public uses of the institution.

ROOMS, ETC.

The rooms, both in the Old Seminary and in Brown Hall, are furnished with a bedstead, mattress, pillows, bureau, washstand, chairs, table, looking-glass, bookcase and clothes-press. The rooms in Brown Hall have also recently been carpeted and supplied with additional furniture by the liberality of friends in New York. In other cases whatever may be needed or desired, beyond the general provision above indicated, must be supplied by the students themselves.

The drawing for vacant rooms by entering students will take place at 2 P. M. on the first day of the session.

EXPENSES.

There is no charge for tuition or room rent. The only fees required of students are $10 for the general expense fund, to pay the cost of warming and lighting the public rooms, the attendance of servants, etc., and $2 for the use of the library and reading room.

Board is furnished at the refectory for $3 per week; in clubs at about the same rate; in private families for from $3 to $5.

Fuel costs from $8 to $15 per annum, and washing $1.50 per month. Total of necessary expenses for the Seminary year, $175 to $200.

Books can be bought at a liberal discount, and some class-books are provided in the library.

Gas-light may be had in the Seminary at the option of the student.

Students are not advised to engage in teaching or in other distracting occupations during term time, with a view to self-support. This is found to interfere seriously with their attention to study, and is rendered unnecessary by the aid which they may receive from the funds of the Seminary, from the Board of Education, and from the liberality of private benefactors.

REPORTS TO PRESBYTERIES.

Annual reports are sent to Presbyteries of the attendance of students under their care upon the exercises of the Seminary.

EXAMINATIONS.

The next annual examination will begin on Monday, May 2nd, and be continued until the following Monday. During the first four days it is conducted in writing; during the last three it is oral, and is in the presence of the Committee appointed by the Board of Directors, to whose scrutiny the results of the written examination are likewise submitted.

The Committee of Examination for the present session will meet at Stuart Hall, on Thursday, May 5th, at 4 P. M.; it consists of Principals,—W. C. Cattell, D.D., LL.D., Elijah R. Craven, D.D., LL.D., W. E. Schenck, D.D., John Hall, D.D., LL.D., William Irvin, D.D., W. B. Greene, Jr., D.D., James T. Leftwich, D.D., George Junkin, LL.D., Silas B. Brownell, LL.D., Hugh H. Hamill, Esq.; Alternates,—James McCosh, D.D., LL.D., Ebenezer Erskine, D.D., Robert Russell Booth, D.D., George Alexander, D.D., Henry J. Van Dyke, D.D., George D. Baker, D.D., Barker Gummere, LL.D., William L. Skidmore, Esq., William L. DuBois, Esq.

The examination is public, and the presence of visitors, particularly from Presbyteries having students under their care, will be welcomed.

Students who are absent from the examinations of their class, or who fail to pass this test in a satisfactory manner, must submit to an examination with the corresponding class in a subsequent year.

THE ACADEMIC YEAR

opens on the third Thursday of September, and closes on the Tuesday before the second Saturday in May.

The Board of Directors hold two stated meetings each year; the first on the Monday before the second Saturday in May; the second on the Thursday before the last Wednesday in October; both beginning at 2 P. M. The next meeting will be held on Monday, May 9th, 1892.

The usual diplomas will be conferred on the next graduating class on Tuesday, May 10th, in the presence of the Board of Directors, when the students will be dismissed with an address by the Rev. John Hall, D.D., LL.D., or the Rev. James T. Leftwich, D.D., his alternate.

The annual sermon, at the close of the session, will be preached by the Rev. William Irvin, D.D., or in case of his absence by the Rev. William Brenton Greene, Jr., D.D.

VACATIONS.

The long summer vacation presents a suitable opportunity for engaging in teaching, or in other remunerative occupations. Students are particularly encouraged to spend their vacation in practical Christian work, under the direction, or with the approbation of their Pastors or Presbyteries. This will furnish a most important supplement to the training of the Seminary, affording an experience and familiarity with the active duties of the ministry, which will be invaluable as a part of the preparation for the sacred office.

A recess of two weeks is also taken at the Christmas holidays.

LOCATION OF THE SEMINARY.

The seclusion and quiet of a rural village is particularly favorable to academic occupation. It was chiefly for this reason, and for the additional advantage of proximity to the College of New Jersey, that the General Assembly, after mature deliberation, selected Princeton as the site of the oldest Seminary of the Church.

It is in quick and easy communication with the neighboring cities of New York and Philadelphia, while yet it is sufficiently removed from them to be free from all distracting influences.

GIFTS AND BEQUESTS TO THE SEMINARY.

The corporate name of the body in charge of the property of the Seminary is "The Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church located at Princeton." Gifts may, at the pleasure of the donors, be directed to the Permanent Fund, which is for the support of the Professors; to the Education Fund, which is for the aid of needy students; to the Contingent Fund, which is for defraying the general expenses of the Institution, its buildings, grounds, etc.; the Sustentation Fund, designed to diminish the expense of boarding; to the Library Fund, or to any other important object connected with the Seminary.
